Intro

Carefully choose your language when answering their questions.

When giving your answers, don't go into extreme detail, just give them the basic facts because this allows for two things

It shortens the length of your answer, making it more digestible to your interviewer.

A shorter answer allows for your interviewer to ask follow-up questions about some of the details

Carefully choose examples from your past that you want to talk about.

One of the best tips I have for you is NOT to blame anyone for failure when answering an interviewers questions, even if someone is to blame questions is to talk about the most important part, first.

1. You need to identify the key competencies for the position you are interviewing for.

Think about the best way you can explain your accomplishments to an interviewer.

Keep your answers positive and make sure your verbal communication supports your non-verbal communication.

Give an example of a time you had to take charge in changing a corporate policy.

Give an example of how you handle ever changing priorities and multiple assignments?
